From The Principal

Well done to the Swimming Team! Second in the small schools division is a fine achievement and all our competitors are to be congratulated on their sportsmanship and excellent behaviour at the pool. It was lovely to greet them off the bus and to see their ribbons fluttering proudly. Congratulations to Jaslyn and Andre who will now compete at the zone swimming finals in backstroke and butterfly events.

Thank you to all the staff that stayed last night to hold our first parent teacher meetings for the year. This time of the year is important in terms of setting goals and plans for each student and parent involvement is welcomed and helpful.

School Council nominations must be in by this Friday so an election can be held before our next meeting on Monday 18 February, 7 pm.

Our newest group of students seem to have settled in happily. The occasional tear in the morning but these soon disappear as the buddies step in to help. It is lovely to watch the older children in this role. Thank you boys and girls for helping your little buddies. I am told the Prep /1’s enjoyed their fire safety incursion on Monday and that all the children are eagerly awaiting the arrival of the fire engine next week! Our school topic of exploring, belonging and knowing our own community is in full swing across all Units.

The school has a wonderful and committed group of parents organising our fundraising events for the school. A very important meeting is being held next Wednesday evening, 7.30 pm in the Community Room, to begin the work for our bi-annual fete. I will be attending too and I am happy to share all the plans we have in mind for all funds raised this year. Please come along to support this committee with your time and ideas.

Enjoy the long weekend everyone!

3.45pm Bell

At 3.45pm each day, a 5 second bell will ring to alert students that have not been collected to come to the office. At this time (as we come off yard duty), Joanne and I will also walk around the yard to ensure students are supervised. Please try and help us by collecting your children before 3.45pm.

ATTENDANCE & BEING ON TIME – Parent Checklist

Tick the statements if you do these things. Ask yourself the question, “How do I help ensure MAXIMUM attendance and punctuality for my son or daughter?”

O I support my child to be organised and ready for school

O I talk about positive school experiences with my child. I avoid making negative comments about school experiences

O I support school values, rules and school decisions

O I ensure my child attends sports days, school excursions and in school activities

O I have a routine at home in the morning so that my children know what to do and when to do it, to be ready for school

How did you rate?

13-15—Maximum support. Your positive attitude will have a strong impact on your child’s schooling.

10-12—Moderate support. Your child will know that you believe school is a very important place for them.

7-9—Your child may not be reaching their full potential and may not be enthusiastic about attending school.

Below 7—There are a number of extra things you can do to support your child’s interest in school. Try them out—it will help.

PREP FOR PARENTS

Each week, I will share with you articles from DEECD that cover topics like what Preps learn at school, learning to read, understanding maths, the excitement of science, the importance of play, and learning to write. We also include links to further resources and online content to help you support your child’s learning journey.

Getting the numbers right

Maths is part of our everyday experiences. We need to know how much things cost and how much we have to spend. We need to know how things fit together and the weight, shape, size and area of objects, especially when packing things like school lunch boxes and bags. And we all need to know the direction to take to get to school, work or the shops and to estimate how long it will take us to get there. These are just a few examples of how we use our maths skills every day, whether we think of ourselves as being good at maths or not.

Just like learning to read, your child will have already started to develop the math skills needed as they experience the world around them. These skills will be further developed this year at school by manipulating and playing with objects that develop links between their immediate environment and everyday language.

Your child will also learn to count forwards and backwards 1 to 20, whether they start counting at 1 or 11. They’ll also build on their child care and kindergarten learning by participating in activities that help them identify and name different shapes (squares, circles, triangles) and to describe things in terms of bigger, longer, heavier or shorter. They will know terms like ‘yesterday’, ‘today’ and ‘tomorrow’ and be able to name the correct day (yesterday was Tuesday, tomorrow is Thursday). They’ll also be asked to follow simple directions (clap hands, stamp left foot, step to the right) and they’ll spend some time solving puzzles and grouping different shapes together (all blue squares and red circles).

Your child may not be able to do all this right now, but they will practice and develop these skills throughout the year.

Some of the things you can do at home to encourage your child to think about and explore maths include:

- ask your child to talk about or name the number of things in their picture story books
- go on a number hunt with your child; for example, get them to look for and identify cars with a number plate that has the number 2, or to look for and identify house or unit numbers with a 4
- collect a selection of different coloured everyday objects (pegs, blocks, beads or cutlery) and have your child to sort them into groups of the same colour. Alternatively, start a repeated pattern (blue, red and orange, blue, red and orange) and get them to continue the pattern
- encourage your child to count while they play – like how many times can they jump, bounce a ball or hear a particular sound
- when you are out and about, talk with your child about the size and shape of things they see. Get them to look for particular shapes and count how many times they see them – how many times can we see a circle, the number of... windows in houses along your street, or the shape of your roof.

• Contact your child’s teacher for more ideas and suggestions about how to support your child’s mathematics learning at home.

REPORTING – open forum
On Thursday 14th March from 4-5pm, I will be hosting an open forum to discuss student reporting at AVPS. The Education committee (a subcommittee of school council) would like to invite you to this forum where we will have a discussion about how we currently report student achievement and progress and invite you to share and give us feedback about: the report cards, our personal and social development page and flexible ways that we might report student progress and achievement with you. Please RSVP via email if you would like to attend. Location of the forum will depend on the number of attendees.

Writing @ AVPS – from Unit 3

Learning to write is a very exciting pursuit for the teacher and the student.

Today we have two very different examples of children who are taking their first steps as writers. Sarah was discussing the role of punctuation in constructing a piece of prose. Amy has taken this up with gusto, using the full stop at every opportunity.

Isobel has used the WORD WALL to assist with her spelling.
Word walls are a very useful resource for the students whose confidence enables them to go to the ‘wall’ search for the word they need then use it in their work. I will discuss word walls in more detail next week.

Please do not turn into and reverse out of any driveways close to the school. This is dangerous for any pedestrians.

Sport and PE news

On Friday we competed in the Ascot Vale district swimming carnival and with a great effort from every student involved we finished 2nd in our division. There was some good competition but not only do we have students now making it through to the Zones, it was great to see a high level of sportsmanship and enjoyment displayed.

Good luck in the zones Andre and Jaslyn!

Despite summer officially being over, please keep an eye on the weather for your PE day. It looks like another warm couple of weeks so apply sunscreen before school and don’t forget your water bottle and appropriate footwear. This will help us all have an enjoyable and sun-smart PE session.

PMP @ Ascot Vale.

‘PMP’ stands for ‘Perceptual Motor Program’, which is a physical skills program that has been designed to assist early years students develop and refine their fine motor/gross motor skills. The importance of good co-ordination in relation to learning readiness has been well documented.
Assessment we undertake with our Prep students has revealed that many would benefit from regular short sessions of PMP. To facilitate this occurring, we are looking for volunteers who would commit to spending 15-20 minutes of their time 3 days a week to assist with this work. We have the necessary equipment for the program, but we are light on for personnel to assist supervising the program. If anyone is able to help, please see me, or leave a message for me in the office. Thank-you, Marg.

Fresh Fruit Friday @ AVPS
Please note the FFF Unit roster listed on the front page of the newsletter within the ‘Key Dates’ section. We only need about half an hour of your time first thing in the morning on Fridays. Volunteers prepare the fruit in the Canteen. Unit 3 parents are on duty this week.

Special Lunch Day 22 March- Sushi
Please print and return a completed order to the school/ Units to place your order for Sushi. Spare notices will also be placed outside the main office for you to collect as needed. Orders must be here by Wednesday 13 March. Thankyou.

Defend your Class – CD rom
All students have been given a CD-Rom to take home and keep. Its title is “Defend your class.” Developed in conjunction with teachers, health professionals and parents, the Defend Your Class School Rewards Program aims to dispel the myths and stigma attached to Head Lice by prompting an open discussion about how it affects kids, both at school and at home.

“An ongoing concern for Primary Schools, Head Lice creates disruption in the classroom and the playground.”

Head Lice are nothing to be ashamed of and given the chance, will transfer from head to head without discrimination. A large proportion of children experience Head Lice at some point throughout their primary school years so it’s important that they, as well as teachers and parents, understand what Head Lice are and how to treat them.

AVPS 2013 FETE
This year in November (date to be confirmed) we will be holding a school fete.
This will involve a lot of planning and assistance from the larger school community.

To begin this planning the Fundraising Committee will be hosting the first FETE PLANNING meeting on WEDNESDAY 13/3/13 at 7.30pm in the Community Room at school.

So if you would like to have a little bit of input or a lot or merely just share some ideas on the fete, please come along to discuss. We'd love to see as many people involved as possible.

The fete will be our major fundraiser for 2013 and is a great community event.

Some IDEAS so far
- Rides
- BBQ, Corn Cobs, Sushi, Curry, Felafel Wraps
- Drinks
- Coffee
- Cakes / Preserves / Fresh Produce
- Lolly Stall
- Trash and Treasure / Second Hand Clothes
- Books
- Craft / Art stall
- Plant Stall
- Lucky Dip
- Talent Quest / Band

Fundraising Committee

OSHC NEWS

Hope everyone had a great weekend with the wonderful weather. Last week however we had to change our program because of rain and so we had movie and popcorn on Wednesday.

This week we intend to encourage the children to do “Child Profiles” with each child writing about themselves, of what they like to eat, games they like to play, craft activities, hobbies etc... and staff will help them through this activity. We hope that this activity will also help us ascertain the children’s likes which we could then incorporate into the program.

We are also encouraging “all” OSHC children to do their homework once the main activity for the day is over. I have alerted the staff and they are ever willing to help the children. We are well aware that ‘homework club’ is not going to be popular but we will make an effort.
There are two new staff members that have joined our team. Elizabeth Howell is a past pupil of Ascot Vale Primary who is very excited to work at the service. Lizzy was then at Mac Robertson’s Girls HS and is now studying Science at Melbourne University. The other staff member joining us is Lisa Forrest. She has just arrived from Scotland. She is also a music teacher and so you will hear melodies from the OSHC room during afternoon tea and some Scottish Country dancing too. We welcome them both to our team.

Well that’s all the news for OSHC for now, wishing everyone a fun filled week.

Dee and the OSHC team.

SCHOOL ZONE PARKING OFFENCES

A ‘No Parking’ sign means that drivers must not stop in the area indicated by the sign unless they are dropping off or picking up passengers or goods. While stopped drivers are not permitted to leave the vehicle unattended, which means they must remain within 3 metres of the vehicle. The driver must complete their task and drive on within two minutes.

Drivers with a disabled parking permit may stop for twice the allowed time.

A driver must not stop in the area shown by the arrows on the sign, even if they are picking up or dropping off passengers. Similarly, drivers must not stop along sections of road marked with a continuous yellow edge line, where older ‘No Standing’ signs are being phased out, but they have the same meaning as ‘No Stopping’.

No stopping on a children’s crossing or Within 20 metres before or
Within 10 metres after a children’s crossing
You cannot proceed through the crossing until all people are off the crossing.

Not to stop within 20 metres before or within 10 metres after a sign indicating a bus stop.

You are not permitted to stop or park your vehicle alongside another vehicle that is already parked parallel to the kerb

We all understand that pick up and drop off times around schools are very busy. Do the right thing be aware and be patient.

Signs are placed around school precincts to protect our kids.

Police will enforce breaches of the road rules.
